Erasmus+ Programme

Erasmus+ Programme (EuRopean Community Action Scheme for the Mobility of University Students) is a European Union student exchange programme established in 1987. Erasmus+ or Erasmus Plus, is the new programme combining all the EU's current schemes for education, training, youth and sport, which was started in January 2014.

Since Comenius University established the cooperation with your university, you may come to Bratislava to study for one semester of your studies at Comenius University, Faculty of Arts. Faculty of Arts is the biggest faculty of the CU and thus offers a wide range of study programmes. Please check the following web page to find out what courses are offered in English language for visiting students; link: <https://fphil.uniba.sk/medzinarodne-vztahy/erasmus/incoming-students/>

In addition to those courses which are offered in English language, you may follow also language classes of different languages (English, Slavic languages, Romance languages, East-Asian languages etc.).

To be accepted for mobility you need to apply for mobility based on the rules of your home university and you need to be selected and nominated for mobility. Then our International Relations Office will contact you and explain you the whole administration of mobility.
